

CODE OF ETHICS

17/05/2013

Code of Ethics Of the International Judo Federation

1. INTRODUCTION

Judo, an Olympic sport since 1964, was created in 1882 by Jigoro Kano as a martial arts discipline with its principle objectives being the physical and intellectual education of Men and Women.

In compliance with the major principles which have led to the creation of Judo, the International Judo Federation has established a Code of Ethics adapted to everyone involved in judo. This Code of Ethics reflects the major principles of the Code of Ethics of the IOC, which serves as a reference and must be respected.

Therefore, the IJF, its members, and everyone involved in organizing an IJF event are required to apply these educational values and this code of behaviour and to ensure that the Code of Ethics is adhered to in all fields, places and circumstances (competition venue, training venue, media platforms, etc.).

2. IOC CODE OF ETHICS

« ...DIGNITY

Safeguarding the dignity of the individual is a fundamental requirement of the Olympism.

There shall be no discrimination between the participants on the basis of race, gender, ethnic origin, religion, philosophical or political opinion, marital status or other grounds.

All doping practices at all levels are strictly prohibited. The provisions against doping in the World Anti-Doping Code shall be scrupulously observed.

All forms of harassment of participants be it physical, professional, religious, political, hierarchical or sexual, and any physical or mental injury to participants are prohibited.

All forms of participation in, or support for, all forms of promotion of betting related to sport in general and more specifically to the Olympic Games are prohibited and must not, by any manner whatsoever, infringe upon the principle of fair play, show non-sporting conduct, or attempt to influence the result of a competition in a manner contrary to sporting ethics...»

All the IJF Managers and Officials, its continental, national and other member bodies undertake to respect the provisions of the Olympic charter and the Code of Ethics of the IOC and the IJF. (Wherever the term «Olympic Parties» is used, it refers to the IJF and its structures and the Olympic bodies).

3. COMPETITORS

The competitors, and especially the Champions, are the face of judo; they must convey, through their behaviour, the educational values and the ethics of our discipline.

The champions on and off the mat represent the image of judo.

RESPECT FOR THE FIGHT CEREMONY

The ceremony of the bow was formalised by the IJF Education Commission. It must be scrupulously observed.

The bows and particularly the bow to the opponent at the beginning of the fight must be respected rigorously and it is prohibited to use bows or ceremonies from other combat sports or disciplines.

It is, of course permissible to congratulate the opponent at the end of the fight or apologize for an awkward gesture.
